Joyful Noise

Luke 19.1-10 Jesus was going through the city of Jericho. In Jericho there was a man named Zacchaeus. He was a wealthy, very important tax collector. He wanted to see who Jesus was, but he was too short to see above the crowd. He ran ahead to a place where he knew Jesus would come. He climbed a sycamore tree so he could see Jesus. When Jesus came to that place, he looked up and saw Zacchaeus in the tree. He said to him, "Zacchaeus, hurry and come down! I must stay at your house today." Zacchaeus came down quickly. He was pleased to have Jesus in his house. All the people saw this and began to complain, "Look at the kind of man Jesus stays with. Zacchaeus is a sinner!" But Zacchaeus said to the Lord, "I will give half of my money to the poor. If I have cheated anyone, I will pay that person back four times more!" Jesus said, "Salvation has come to this house today. This man truly belongs to the family of Abraham. 10 The Son of Man came to find lost people and save them.

Said and Sung Eucharist

2 Kings 5.1-3, 7-15c Naaman, commander of the army of the king of Aram, was a great man and in high favour with his master, because by him the Lord had given victory to Aram. The man, though a mighty warrior, suffered from leprosy. Now the Arameans on one of their raids had taken a young girl captive from the land of Israel, and she served Naaman's wife. She said to her mistress, 'If only my lord were with the prophet who is in Samaria! He would cure him of his leprosy.' When the king of Israel read the letter, he tore his clothes and said, 'Am I God, to give death or life, that this man sends word to me to cure a man of his leprosy? Just look and see how he is trying to pick a quarrel with me.' But when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, he sent a message to the king, 'Why have you torn your clothes? Let him come to me, that he may learn that there is a prophet in Israel.' So Naaman came with his horses and chariots, and halted at the entrance of Elisha's house. Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, 'Go, wash in the Jordan seven times, and your flesh shall be restored and you shall be clean.' But Naaman became angry and went away, saying, 'I thought that for me he would surely come out, and stand and call on the name of the Lord his God, and would wave his hand over the spot, and cure the leprosy! Are not Abana and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Could I not wash in them, and be clean?' He turned and went away in a rage. But his servants approached and said to him, 'Father, if the prophet had commanded you to do something difficult, would you not have done it? How much more, when all he said to you was, "Wash, and be clean"?' So he went down and immersed himself seven times in the Jordan, according to the word of the man of God; his flesh was restored like the flesh of a young boy, and he was clean. Then he returned to the man of God, he and all his company; he came and stood before him and said, 'Now I know that there is no God in all the earth except in Israel; please accept a present from your servant.'

Psalm III

The Lord is gracious and full of compassion.

The Lord is gracious and full of compassion.

Alleluia. I will give thanks to the Lord with my whole heart, in the company of the faithful and in the congregation. The works of the Lord are great, sought out by all who delight in them. His work is full of majesty and honour and his righteousness endures for ever.

The Lord is gracious and full of compassion.

He appointed a memorial for his marvellous deeds; the Lord is gracious and full of compassion. He gave food to those who feared him; he is ever mindful of his covenant. He showed his people the power of his works in giving them the heritage of the nations. The works of his hands are truth and justice; all his commandments are sure.

The Lord is gracious and full of compassion.

They stand fast for ever and ever; they are done in truth and equity. He sent redemption to his people; he commanded his covenant for ever; holy and awesome is his name. The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom; a good understanding have those who live by it; his praise endures for ever.

The Lord is gracious and full of compassion.

Luke 17.11-19 On the way to Jerusalem Jesus was going through the region between Samaria and Galilee. As he entered a village, ten lepers approached him. Keeping their distance, they called out, saying, 'Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!' When he saw them, he said to them, 'Go and show yourselves to the priests.' And as they went, they were made clean. Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice. He prostrated himself at Jesus' feet and thanked him. And he was a Samaritan. Then Jesus asked, 'Were not ten made clean? But the other nine, where are they? Was none of them found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?' Then he said to him, 'Get up and go on your way; your faith has made you well.'

Notices

PRAYER MINISTRY If you would like someone to pray with you or for you then stay in your seat at the end of today's 10.30am Sung Eucharist, and one of our pastoral team will join you.

HARVEST We had a wonderful Harvest Festival celebration on Sunday. Thank you to everyone who contributed to our joyful worship and our amazing Harvest Roast in aid of One-to-One, Enfield. Thank you too to everyone who brought groceries and toiletries for the North Enfield Foodbank.

TRUST AGM AND EVENSONG On Sunday 19 October St Paul's Trust will be holding its AGM with afternoon tea, starting at 4.30pm. This is the first opportunity to find out more about the exciting plans we have to refurbish the church hall, as well as find out more about the Trust and its work. We also have our termly Choral Evensong on this day, at 6pm.

OFFICE VOLUNTEER The Parish Office is looking for volunteers to help at the end of the week with simple admin tasks. These tasks include things such as photocopying and folding the weekly notice sheet, laminating posters and updating the noticeboards around the church and hall. We currently have a rota and each person helps in the office every third week and the tasks tend to take no more than an hour. If this is something you could help with please email Emily in the Parish Office (office@spwh.org).

ALL SOULS Our annual Requiem Eucharist for the faithful departed takes place on Sunday 2 November at 6pm. To add the name of a departed loved one, to be read out during the prayers at this service, please email the Parish Office.

ELEVATION FUNDRAISING EVENT An exclusive sit down fine dining event with Winchmore Hill Supper Club and Georgina Hayden, kicking off our fundraising appeal to refurbish the church hall. This is an event not to be missed! More details, including how to book, can be found on posters around the church and hall and in our e-newsletter.

JOIN OUR NEW MUSIC GROUP We are starting a new music group to play at All-Together Eucharists and also the occasional hymn or song on other Sundays. So we are calling all instrumentalists! If you play an instrument and would like to get involved please email musicgroup@spwh.org. All ages and abilities welcome.

ARCHBISHOP OF CANTERBURY Please pray for our diocesan bishop, the Rt Revd and Rt Hon Dame Sarah Mullally - who has been chosen at the next Archbishop of Canterbury - that she may be a wise and loving shepherd of those who Christ has called her to service. And pray too for our Diocese of London as we prepare for vacancy.

This week's diary

Morning Prayer and Evening Prayer are usually said publicly in church Monday-Thursday at 9.10am and 5pm. Everyone is welcome. The church is normally open every day for prayer, reflection and visitors.
