Today's readings

Joyful Noise

John 10.11-15 Jesus said, "I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd gives his life for the sheep. The worker who is paid to keep the sheep is different from the shepherd who owns them. So when the worker sees a wolf coming, he runs away and leaves the sheep alone. Then the wolf attacks the sheep and scatters them. The man runs away because he is only a paid worker. He does not really care for the sheep.

"I am the good shepherd. I know my sheep, and my sheep know me, just as the Father knows me, and I know the Father. I give my life for the sheep.

Said and Sung Eucharists

Acts 4.5-12 The next day their rulers, elders, and scribes assembled in Jerusalem, with Annas the high priest, Caiaphas, John, and Alexander, and all who were of the high-priestly family. When they had made the prisoners stand in their midst, they inquired, 'By what power or by what name did you do this?' Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, 'Rulers of the people and elders, if we are questioned today because of a good deed done to someone who was sick and are asked how this man has been healed, let it be known to all of you, and to all the people of Israel, that this man is standing before you in good health by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead. This Jesus is "the stone that was rejected by you, the builders; it has become the cornerstone." There is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given among mortals by which we must be saved.'

Psalm 23

I will dwell in your house for ever.

I will dwell in your house for ever.

The Lord is my shepherd; therefore can I lack nothing. He makes me lie down in green pastures and leads me beside still waters.

I will dwell in your house for ever.

He shall refresh my soul and guide me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me.

I will dwell in your house for ever.

You spread a table before me in the presence of those who trouble me; you have anointed my head with oil and my cup shall be full. Surely goodness and loving mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

I will dwell in your house for ever.

John 10.11-18 'I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. The hired hand, who is not the shepherd and does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and runs away—and the wolf snatches them and scatters them. The hired hand runs away because a hired hand does not care for the sheep. I am the good shepherd. I know my own and my own know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father. And I lay down my life for the sheep. I have other sheep that do not belong to this fold. I must bring them also, and they will listen to my voice. So there will be one flock, one shepherd. For this reason the Father loves me, because I lay down my life in order to take it up again. No one takes it from me, but I lay it down of my own accord. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it up again. I have received this command from my Father.'

NOTICES

PRAYER MINISTRY One-to-one prayer ministry is available after the Sung Eucharist today. Remain in your seat and someone will come and find you.

ELECTORAL ROLL REVISION Each year we have to revise the church's Electoral Roll, which is effectively our church membership list, and inclusion on it means that you can vote (and stand for election) at the Annual Meetings in May. If you are not on the Electoral Roll (which will be displayed at the back of church), or your details have changed, please fill in an Electoral Roll which can be found at the back of church, by 28 April.

RACIAL JUSTICE At its March meeting the PCC had a really engaging discussion about racial justice, including a chance to hear the lived experiences of some GMH (Global Majority Heritage) PCC members. We're setting up a small group to explore how we can become more racially just at St Paul's, which is also one of the Diocese of London's mission priorities. If you'd like to be involved in this please contact lolacawood@gmail.com

R VOICES CONCERT Please join us for this amazing summer fundraising event on 16th May at 7.30pm. R Voices are always excellent and the proceeds raised will all go to great causes.

COFFEE MORNING Saturday 27th April 2024 from 10.30am to 12pm in the Paulin Room, St Paul's Church Hall. Come and have a chat over coffee and cake and get to know some new people, bring your family and friends! Table activities for children. The proceeds will go to Parish Funds.

LOST PROPERTY A couple of months ago an iPod was found in the Parish Office – it shows an email address of fmcgarvie13@gmail.com. Please get in touch if it belongs to you.
