Today's readings

Joyful Noise

Luke 10.1-6 The Lord chose seventy-two others. He sent them out in pairs. He sent them ahead of him into every town and place where he planned to go. He said to them, "There are a great many people to harvest. But there are only a few workers to harvest them. God owns the harvest. Pray to God that he will send more workers to help gather his harvest. You can go now. But listen! I am sending you, and you will be like sheep among wolves. Don't carry a purse, a bag, or sandals. Don't stop to talk with people on the road. 5 Before you go into a house, say, 'Peace be with this house.' If a peaceful man lives there, your blessing of peace will stay with him. If the man is not peaceful, then your blessing of peace will come back to you.

Said and Sung Eucharist

Timothy 4.5-17 As for you, always be sober, endure suffering, do the work of an evangelist, carry out your ministry fully. As for me, I am already being poured out as a libation, and the time of my departure has come. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. From now on there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give to me on that day, and not only to me but also to all who have longed for his appearing. Do your best to come to me soon, for Demas, in love with this present world, has deserted me and gone to Thessalonica; Crescens has gone to Galatia, Titus to Dalmatia. Only Luke is with me. Get Mark and bring him with you, for he is useful in my ministry. I have sent Tychicus to Ephesus. When you come, bring the cloak that I left with Carpus at Troas, also the books, and above all the parchments. Alexander the coppersmith did me great harm; the Lord will pay him back for his deeds. You also must beware of him, for he strongly opposed our message. At my first defence no one came to my support, but all deserted me. May it not be counted against them! But the Lord stood by me and gave me strength, so that through me the message might be fully proclaimed and all the Gentiles might hear it. So I was rescued from the lion's mouth.

Psalm 147.1-7

Great is our Lord and mighty in power.

Great is our Lord and mighty in power.

Alleluia. How good it is to make music for our God, how joyful to honour him with praise. The Lord builds up Jerusalem and gathers together the outcasts of Israel.

Great is our Lord and mighty in power.

He heals the brokenhearted and binds up all their wounds. He counts the number of the stars and calls them all by their names. Great is our Lord and mighty in power; his wisdom is beyond all telling.

Great is our Lord and mighty in power.

The Lord lifts up the poor, but casts down the wicked to the ground. Sing to the Lord with thanksgiving; make music to our God upon the lyre;

Great is our Lord and mighty in power.

Luke 10.1-9 The Lord appointed seventy others and sent them on ahead of him in pairs to every town and place where he himself intended to go. He said to them, 'The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest. Go on your way. See, I am sending you out like lambs into the midst of wolves. Carry no purse, no bag, no sandals; and greet no one on the road. Whatever house you enter, first say, "Peace to this house!" And if anyone is there who shares in peace, your peace will rest on that person; but if not, it will return to you. Remain in the same house, eating and drinking whatever they provide, for the labourer deserves to be paid. Do not move about from house to house. Whenever you enter a town and its people welcome you, eat what is set before you; cure the sick who are there, and say to them, "The kingdom of God has come near to you."

Notices

ST PAUL'S TRUST AGM This takes place this afternoon beginning with a talk by James Thomson, former Head Server, at 4.30pm in church, which will focus on the life and ministry of the Revd Francis Lampen (Vicar of St Paul's from 1950 until 1981). This will be followed by afternoon tea and the AGM at 5pm, and concluding with Evensong at 6pm. All welcome - you don't have to be a member of the Trust (yet!) to come along.

SMILE FOR THE CAMERA This Sunday Kaya will be joining us again to take photos for our new website. Please email office@spwh.org if you would prefer not to be included in photos. Also, if you have children, you will need to complete a consent form (available on Sunday) if you are happy for their images to be used.

PRAYER MINISTRY Stay in your place after the 10.30am Sung Eucharist if you would like one of our Pastoral Care Team to pray with you.

GET INVOLVED We're currently recruiting for three of our really important teams: Altar servers, flower arrangers and the coffee rota. Please see details in our e-newsletter or email the office.

BLACK HISTORY MONTH PILGRIMAGE Members of our Racial Justice Working Group will be attending the Black History Month Pilgrimage with Bishop Anderson and the Bishop of Willesden on Friday 23 October, 10am-3pm. Please join us! The walk will begin at Limehouse DLR station and end at Cable Street. We will be meeting at Winchmore Hill Station and taking the 0853 train together. To sign up, search for Black History Month 2026 Pilgrimage Walk on eventbrite.co.uk - Tickets are free. Any questions, speak to or email Joanna Brown.

COFFEE MORNING AND BOOK LAUNCH Everyone is welcome to come and have a cup of coffee on Saturday 14 November (10.30am-12pm) in the Paulin Room of the Church Hall. We are very pleased that Liz Veitch will tell us about the book she has recently published entitled Grief and Loss and Love and read some poems from it.

ALL SOULS REQUIEM Join us for this beautiful and poignant service. Names can be added to the list in church or by using this QR code.

CAROLS ON THE GREEN We need some people to join the team which organises Carols on the Green, which will be on Wednesday 16 December. This is one of the most significant events we organise, both in terms of outreach and raising funds for Crisis. Contact Mthr Lyanne to get involved or find out more.

This week's diary

Morning Prayer and Evening Prayer are usually said publicly in church Monday-Thursday at 9.10am and 5pm. Everyone is welcome. The church is normally open every day for prayer, reflection and visitors.
