Joyful Noise

Luke 19.1-10 Jesus was going through the city of Jericho. In Jericho there was a man named Zacchaeus. He was a wealthy, very important tax collector. He wanted to see who Jesus was, but he was too short to see above the crowd. He ran ahead to a place where he knew Jesus would come. He climbed a sycamore tree so he could see Jesus. When Jesus came to that place, he looked up and saw Zacchaeus in the tree. He said to him, "Zacchaeus, hurry and come down! I must stay at your house today." Zacchaeus came down quickly. He was pleased to have Jesus in his house. All the people saw this and began to complain, "Look at the kind of man Jesus stays with. Zacchaeus is a sinner!" But Zacchaeus said to the Lord, "I will give half of my money to the poor. If I have cheated anyone, I will pay that person back four times more!" Jesus said, "Salvation has come to this house today. This man truly belongs to the family of Abraham. The Son of Man came to find lost people and save them.

Said and Sung Eucharist

Philippians 4.1-9 My brothers and sisters, whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, stand firm in the Lord in this way, my beloved. I urge Euodia and I urge Syntyche to be of the same mind in the Lord. Yes, and I ask you also, my loyal companion, help these women, for they have struggled beside me in the work of the gospel, together with Clement and the rest of my co-workers, whose names are in the book of life. Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near. Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honourable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. Keep on doing the things that you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, and the God of peace will be with you.

Psalm 23

I will dwell in your house for ever.

I will dwell in your house for ever.

The Lord is my shepherd; therefore can I lack nothing. He makes me lie down in green pastures and leads me beside still waters.

I will dwell in your house for ever.

He shall refresh my soul and guide me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me.

I will dwell in your house for ever.

You spread a table before me in the presence of those who trouble me; you have anointed my head with oil and my cup shall be full. Surely goodness and loving mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

I will dwell in your house for ever.

Matthew 22.1-14 Once more Jesus spoke to them in parables, saying: 'The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a wedding banquet for his son. He sent his slaves to call those who had been invited to the wedding banquet, but they would not come. Again he sent other slaves, saying, "Tell those who have been invited: Look, I have prepared my dinner, my oxen and my fat calves have been slaughtered, and everything is ready; come to the wedding banquet." But they made light of it and went away, one to his farm, another to his business, while the rest seized his slaves, maltreated them, and killed them. The king was enraged. He sent his troops, destroyed those murderers, and burned their city. Then he said to his slaves, "The wedding is ready, but those invited were not worthy. Go therefore into the main streets, and invite everyone you find to the wedding banquet." Those slaves went out into the streets and gathered all whom they found, both good and bad; so the wedding hall was filled with guests. 'But when the king came in to see the guests, he noticed a man there who was not wearing a wedding robe, and he said to him, "Friend, how did you get in here without a wedding robe?" And he was speechless. Then the king said to the attendants, "Bind him hand and foot, and throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth." For many are called, but few are chosen.'

SUNDAY SCHOOL TASTER SESSION This Sunday we're offering a Sunday School taster session after Joyful Noise in the church hall. Sunday School runs during the 10.30am Sung Eucharist during term-time, and is a brilliant way for children to deepen their faith and learn about Jesus. And it gives parents/carers the chance to be child-free for the first part of the Eucharist... and deepen their faith and learn about Jesus!

BRACELETS FOR PROJECT 200 Julianna will be selling her popular handmade bracelets in the hall between services this Sunday.

OLD TIME MUSIC HALL EVENT This fundraising event for Project 200 takes place on Saturday 17 October at 7.30pm. Tickets (£12) will soon be on sale, and you can also book via suejeffreys@icloud.com or 07973427799. If you cannot attend but would like to contribute to this fund-raising event, you can give something for the raffle to one of the choir members.

ST PAUL'S TRUST AGM This takes place on Sunday 18 October beginning with a talk by James Thomson, former Head Server, at 4.30pm in church, followed by afternoon tea and AGM at 5pm, and concluding with Evensong at 6pm. All welcome - you don't have to be a member of the Trust (yet!) to come along.

GET INVOLVED We're currently recruiting for three of our really important teams: Altar servers, flower arrangers and the coffee rota. Please see details in our e-newsletter or email the office.

BLACK HISTORY MONTH PILGRIMAGE Members of our Racial Justice Working Group will be attending the Black History Month Pilgrimage with Bishop Anderson and the Bishop of Willesden on Friday 23 October, 10am-3pm. Please join us! The walk will begin at Limehouse DLR station and end at Cable Street. We will be meeting at Winchmore Hill Station and taking the 0853 train together. To sign up, search for Black History Month 2026 Pilgrimage Walk on eventbrite.co.uk - Tickets are free. Any questions, speak to or email Joanna Brown.

CAROLS ON THE GREEN We need some people to join the team which organises Carols on the Green, which will be on Wednesday 16 December. This is one of the most significant events we organise, both in terms of outreach and raising funds for Crisis. Contact Mthr Lyanne to get involved or find out more.

ALL SOULS REQUIEM Join us for this beautiful and poignant service. Names can be added to the list in church or by using the link found in the e-newsletter.

This week's diary

Morning Prayer and Evening Prayer are usually said publicly in church Monday-Thursday at 9.10am and 5pm. Everyone is welcome. The church is normally open every day for prayer, reflection and visitors.
